The appeal of Wong How, who was fined $100 and costs in the District Court for keeping liquor for sale at Wailua on and prior to May 1, without a license, has been filed in the Circuit Court.

Ah Wood, who was sentenced to two months' imprisonment for stealing two barrels of leaf tallow from the Hawaii Meat Company on June 24, has appealed to the Circuit Court from the decision of the District Court.

October 25 has been set by Judge Whitney as the date on which he will hear the petition of the Hawaiian Trust Company, executor of the will and estate of the late William McCourt, in which it asks to be relieved of further responsibility. The executor asks that it be given an allowance of $469.35 and that it be charged with $55.32.

Kim Pau, the young Korean who several weeks ago sprang into the limelight of publicity through the courts as the result of his ill-fated attempt to elope with See Moy, the daughter of Tom Soong, is not yet done in his fight for what he considers his rights. Sentenced by the District Court to serve a month in jail because he was found loitering on the property of Tom Soong at night, Kim Pau has appealed to the Circuit Court. Kim Sui Yune, his companion, is included in the appeal.

BURGLAR GETS STIFF SENTENCE

Sam Kahl, alleged by the police as an old offender, and who charged with having stolen sundry articles of adornment and wearing apparel, entered a plea of guilty, received a series of sentences from the District court bench this morning aggregating eighteen months' imprisonment.

Kahl, is charged with the robbery of a Japanese hotel in which several lodgers are said to have lost valuable articles including a gold watch and other trinkets.

The Hawaiian is also charged with having effected an entrance to premises on Desha Lane the dressing room for a company of base ball players. In this raid Kahl is said to have made way with clothing, shoes, Panama hats and a $30 lei.

As Schofield Barracks, Kahl's stay was short lived, and it was there that steps were taken to effect his arrest. The officers declare that pairs of leggings and a bicycle were removed by the Hawaiian.

The police record of Kahl shows that he has but recently served a two year sentence upon a charge of burglary, the man also being detained an additional two years because of breaking jail. Kahl also served time at the reformatory school.

Chief of Detectives McDuffie and his men believe that with the arrest of the Hawaiian they have cleared up the cause of a number of petty robberies about the city, which have occupied the attention of the police department for a number of months.

BANANA FIBER INDUSTRY.

The Ceylon Patriot of Jan. 30, 1912, deals with the possibility of the extraction of fiber from the banana plant after the fruit has been harvested. A stripping method using a wooden frame holding a blunt knife actuated by a bent bamboo pole or by steel springs, similar to the devices used for the hand stripping Manila hemp is described.

It is estimated that 1500 banana stocks will yield a ton of fiber; that a man and boy can strip 15 lbs. of fiber per day at a cost of 50 cents.

Thus the stripping cost Rs. 75 per ton. Baling, insurance, freight, commission &c. cost an additional Rs. 45, totaling Rs. 120.

The London price fluctuates, but is usually about Rs. 300 per ton, leaving a net profit of Rs. 180. The estimate is based on the assumption that the stocks cost nothing, having been grown for the fruit. An acre of ground ordinarily can be planted with 1500 plants from which fruit is gathered in 18 months. Fruit bunches selling at 40 cents yield Rs. 600 of which Rs. 250 should more than cover the cost leaving a net of Rs. 350 for the fruit, which better results are claimed.

Fibers are becoming so important in the world's industries that economical banana farming would seem to licitate that an effort should be made to utilize a fiber which nets one-half as much as the fruit.

SUPERVISORS TAKE ACTION ON VARIOUS MATTERS

Queen street will be thrown open to traffic with its bitulithic pavement on Saturday. The bridge and River street, between King and Queen streets, will be paved with the same material. J. A. Gilman made a proposal to the board of supervisors last night to pave the approaches to the Hackfield and the Railroad wharves.

The bid of the Advertiser to furnish 1000 copies of the Municipal Record in pamphlet form for $12 was accepted.

Several measures passed third reading, including $3500 for Maunaloa; $1500 for building additions to the Waipahu schoolhouse and $200 for storm drains there, and $1700 for repairing Sixth avenue, Kaimuki.

The board accepted the bid of $2998 made by John Fernandez to construct a storm drain through the Kamehameha School grounds.

The board will purchase 250 feet of hose for flushing downtown streets in the vicinity of the fishmarket.

The auto police patrol wagon bought from the von Hamme-Young Company was accepted and paid for, and put into commission at once.

The petition of L. Ah Leong, on appeal from the decision of the building inspector permitting the building of a tenement near the junction of King and Liliha streets, was referred to the city attorney.

The board authorizes the purchase of ten dump wagons.

The contract for the construction of a macadam road on the west side of Nuananu street, given to M. Picano, has been completed and the work accepted and paid for.

The sum of $250 was voted to construct a road at Kailua, Koolauloko.

EXPRESS COMPANY

Lorin K. Smith has assumed the management of the Hawaiian Express Co., and will conduct it along the latest methods. He has added a big auto truck which will meet all steamers and will make a specialty of looking after the baggage of tourists.

The new firm will branch out into the storage business with large storage accommodations at the corner of Nuananu and Queen streets. Piano and furniture-moving carefully executed.

SPARROWS PLUCK PIGEON.

Its feet held fast in soft tar which had been melted by the sun on the roof of the supply house of the Board of Education, West Monroe street, Chicago, a pigeon was being shorn of its feathers by a flock of sparrows when it was sighted by policemen who were standing in front of the patrol wagon barn at the Desplantes street station. The sparrows had plucked feather after feather from the pigeon before the policemen realized what was taking place. Policemen Sullivan, Murphy and Croft finally climbed to the roof of the building and liberated the pigeon.
